• Supports multiple user accounts and password • Brings mail from multiple accounts into one single window • Automatically detects new mail and fetches them. • Stores and generates ZIP and 7z archives • Stores mail as "snapshots" or "backups" • Reads HTML mail and downloads attachments to local directory • Works with almost any internet service • Easy and intuitive to use • Designed to fit any screen resolution • Background- and multi-threaded process • User-friendly GUI • Compatible with Mac, Windows, Linux, iOS, Android, Windows Phone and more ...I used to be annoyed by people that always got the SAME results with the same questions. At the beginning I thought it was bad. But after a while I understand that people are different. In the end this "me" is you, and you are the one that is going to get the results. If you want to do your best, you have to be confident in your own abilities. This is the best strategy that works with everyone. Don't depend on other people's opinions. And don't follow someone else's path that only leads to success. You have to work on your own, but you have to do this in the presence of others. If you think too much, you will be stressed. Your success depends a lot on your thinking. I always had problems with my thinking. I thought too much. I thought about my future, about problems that were on my mind, about bad luck, about what people were going to say and I ended up in the middle of a nightmare. I tried to stay focused and had times when I thought I was doing something good but this ended up costing me a lot of money. So, it was a problem for me. And I tried to change that, to overcome that problem. That was the biggest mistake I ever did. I thought I was not able to change my thinking. I thought there was no way to do that. Until one day I saw the right solution. The key to doing this is to be focused on your goals and not on the distractions. I was thinking about a lot of distractions, about problems and about bad luck
